Hath two Significations.

I. Mare: lacus: occidentens, quia mare erat ad occidentem terrae Israel. The Sea, or any great Collection of Waters, as a Lake. The Salt Sea, or Sea of the Plain, is the same as the Dead Sea, or Lake of Sodom, Numb. 34. 3. Josh. 3. 16. Sea of Cinneroth (Josh. 12. 3.) is the Sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias, John 6. 1. Former, or Eastern, Sea, (Zech. 14. 8.) is the Lake of Sodom; Hinder Sea is the Mediterranean. The brazen, or molten Sea (1 Kings 7. 23. 2 Kings 25. 13.) was a very large Vessel of Brass in the Temple, holding a great Quantity of Water, for the Priests to wash in. The Sea is also used to signify the West, because the Mediterranean Sea lieth on the western Coast of the Land of Israel, all along from North to South, Exod. 10. 19. —27. 12. Ezek. 41. 12. But in one Place, Commentators are agreed, it stands for the South, Psal. 107. 3. [from the North, and from the Sea, i. e. the Red Sea, which lieth opposite to the North in Judea.] The Sea, is a great Multitude of People, or an Innundation of military Forces, Jer. 51. 42. See Ezek. 26. 3.

II. Ulula. The female Ostrich. Bochart. The Ostrich is a very large Fowl with beautiful Feathers; on the Back and Wings very like those of the Stork. And as the Wings of the Stork, so are those of the Ostrich, well adapted to take Advantage of the Wind. For though she cannot fly above the Ground like other Fowls, yet, by the Assistance of the Wind, the strong Agitations of her expanded Wings enable her to run so very swiftly that she laughs at the Horse and his Rider. For the fleetest Arabian Horses cannot come up with her. Job 39. 13, &c. Yet 'tis in some respects a very stupid Animal. For she leaveth, or deposits, her Eggs on the Earth, and warms, or sits upon them, in the Dust, or Sand. But upon the least Noise or Disturbance she forsakes them or her young, either neglecting them, or forgetting where they are. She lays from thirty to fifty Eggs or more; but hatches scarce a Quarter of them; the rest serve those few that are hatch'd for Food. The Arabians sometimes find whole Nests of those Eggs, some sound, some rotten, according to the Time they have been forsaken by the Dam. Oftner they meet a Few of the young Ones, no bigger than well grown Pullets; half starv'd; straggling and moaning, like so many distress'd Orphans, for their Mother. 'Tis a shy, timorous Creature, delighting in solitary barren Deserts. In the Night they frequently make a very doleful and hideous Noise; sometimes groaning as if they were in the greatest Agonies. The Scripture Names for the Ostrich are רננים [1793: 30.] Job 39. 13. and this here, יענה, from ענה Clamare, [1387] both alluding to the loud and sonorous Noise made by the Ostrich. Shaw's Travels, Suppl. p. 66. &c. Bochart thinks the Ostrich has also another Name. See Root 600: 19.

II. Favus mellis. Pure, liquid Wood-Honey; being such as, in hot Weather, burst the Comb and run down the hollow Trees or Rocks; where, in the Land of Judea, the Bees made great Store of Honey, 1 Sam.
14. 25, 26. Which Honey flowing spontaneously must be the best and most delicious, as it must be quite pure and free from all Dregs and Drofs. This the Israelites called יַעְרָה Wood-Honey, or Honey self-cured in the Wood, in Contradistinction to that which was squeezed out of the Comb with the Hand; which, for that Reason, could not be so pure and unmix'd.
Jonathan therefore (1 Sam. 14.
27.) did not put his Stick into a Honey-comb; but into יַעְרָה הַדְּבַשׁ, that is, into that Part of the Honey which was running down the Tree or Rock; or into the Wood-Honey, as dis-tinguish'd from the Honey that was above in the Comb. [and dipt it in the running part of the Honey.] Nor should the Word be translated my Honey-Comb, Cant. 5. 1. but my Pure-wood-Honey, and then דְּבַשׁ, which is there joined with it, is to be understood of common Honey, or perhaps of Palm-Honey.
[Root 353.] I have eaten my Pure-wood-Honey with my Honeyof-the-Palm. Josephus mentions this Palm-Honey de Bell. Jud.

יִרְדָּה 796

Hath two Significations.

I. Jacere, projicere, jaculari: pluer, pluvia. To set right and true, as Stones in a Building, Josb. 38. 6. [who laid, set, adjusted in its proper Place and Directions, the Corner-stone thereof.] Gen. 31. 51. [this Heap and this Pillar, which I have cast, set in a regular Manner, to be a standing, perpetual Memorial of this Transaction.] To throw Darts, shoot Arrows or Stones out of an Engine in a regular Manner, or aiming directly at a Mark, 2 Kings 19. 32. 2 Chron. 26. 15. Hence to precipitate, to shoot down, or cast down with sudden Violence, Exod. 15. 4. Josb. 30. 19. To adjust, and direct an affair in a right Manner, as the casting of Lots, Josb. 18. 6. [that I may cast † and I will cast, i. e. I will order, regulate, direct for you the Lot. Note, it is no where used in the Affair of casting Lots, but in this Place.] To direct or guide in the right Way in a Journey, Gen. 46. 28. To guide, direct or instruct in a right Way or Course of Action, or what a Person should do, Judg. 13. 8. 1 Sam. 12. 23. 2 Kings 12. 2. Psal. 25. 8, 12. —27. 11. —32. 8. —86. 11. —119. 33. Prov. 4. 11. —6. 13. Psal. 45. 4. [thy right hand by its power, will teach, or direct, guide thee to do, terrible things.] A Law or Rule of Action, shewing what ought to be done, Exod. 12. 49. Why the first or former Rain [See below No. 27.] should take its Name from this Root, as distinguished from the latter Rain, which is expressed by a different Word, I cannot tell, unless it be perhaps from its being directed to fall in the right Time, just after the seed is sown.

Rain, or rainy Season, usually falls in Palestine about the middle of November; the latter Rain about the End of April. During the summer Season those Countries are seldom refresh'd with Rain. 1 Sam. 12. 17. Shaw's Travels p. 363. The first Rain fell after the sowing of their Seed, that it might take Root in the Earth; the latter Rain was a little before Harvest that the Ear might be full. If those Rains were seasonable and moderate, the Land was fruitful; if they fail'd, a Dearth ensu'd, and the Drought, like Fire, devoured the Pastures. If they fell immoderately, the Grains rotted under the Clods, Joel. 1. 19, 17. Ainsworth on Deut. 12. 14. Hath three Significations.

I. *Haeredem esse, vel fieri, possidere ex haereditate.
To possess, either by Inheritance, Gift or Violence, what belongs to others. To possess another Person's Property implies his being stript or impoverished, Jud.
14. 15. To possess or enjoy what is our own, Numb. 36. 8.
Josh. 1. 15. Thus, a Possession is any valuable Enjoyment which is in our Power, or we have the Use of. So the Law of Moses was a Possession to the Congregation of Jacob, Deut. 33. 4.
And the good Designs Job had formed were the Possession of his Heart, Job 17. 11. [Signif.
II.] Niphal. To be possessed by another, is to be stript of one's Property, and made poor, Gen. 45. 11. Prov. 20. 13.
Hiphil. To make to possess, which by Consequence, is the same as to dispossess: For when I make myself, or any other Person to possess what is another Man's Property, I dispos-sess that Man, or drive him out of what he possesses, Judg. 1.
27. —11. 23, 24. 1 Kings 14.
24. [which the Lord cast out + which the Lord made to possess before the Children of Israel; this is the same as, the Lord made to possess them, or made them to be possessed.] Hence, to cast, to drive out, Job 20.

יֵשֶׁה 805

Hath two Significations.

I. Est, sunt. Schultens, upon Prov. 19. 18, faith, " that " the Hebrew Word יֵשֶׁה is not a " Verb, but a Noun Substan" tive, signifying Solidity." And Koerber, before him, in his small Lexicon of the Hebrew Particles, printed at the End of Noldius's Concordance, in the Jena Edition, affirms that it is a Noun derived from the same Root as יֵשֶׁה a Man, and signifies Force, Power, Firmness, Existence; and as an Adjective, firm, strong, existing, &c. and adds the following Examples; Gen. 18. 24. peradventure there be fifty + perhaps there is the Existence of fifty righteous. — 24. 42. If now thou do prosper + if Firmness, or firm Purpose, is to thee prospering my Way.
—Ver 49. if you will deal kindly + if firmness is to you dealing kindly. Gen. 31. 29. It is in the Power + Force is to the Power of my Hand. Ruth 3. 12. there is a Kinsman + there is the Power of a Kinsman. I believe this Criticism is right. We render it in one Place Substance,

Prov. 8. 21. And 2 Chron. 25.
9. The Lord is able + Power is to the Lord. But in the Form of a Noun it cannot well be translated in many Places. It stands under a strong Emphasis, and may be translated in reality, certainly, truly, sincerely, wholly, entirely. It may import the Reality, Entireness, Solidity, Completeness of Existence, and is to be understood and translated according to the Nature of the Subject to which it is apply'd; and it may be applied to any Subject.

of the Root שוח, [1893.] which is near of kin to this here, we may probably conjecture, that this here signifies properly Sloughs or deep Clay-pits, into which Per-up; and metaphorically, any calamitous Visitation, by which a Nation is distressed, brought Rectum esse, vel videri.

To be plain, even, level and straight. I. Apply'd to a Plain, or level Tract of Land in a Country, in opposition to the mountainous Part, Deut. 4. 43. 1 Kings 20. 23. 2 Chron. 26. 10. Jer. 48. 21. Zech. 4. 7. II. To a Way or Path, that is plain and even, smooth and straight; not rugged, nor winding about. Ezra. 8. 21. Psal. 26. 12. Ifai. 40. 3, 4. —42. 16. —45. 2. Jer. 31. 9. To go right on the direct Way, 1 Sam. 6. 12. Prov. 9. 15. To direct a Thing or Person to move in the right Way, Job 37. 3. Psal. 107. 7. Ifai. 45. 13. III. To a River or Brook made to run in a straight direct Course, 2 Chron. 32. 30. IV. To Legs smooth and straight, like those of a Man, without such a Joint in the Middle, as Beasts have, Ezek. 1. 7. V. To the covering of carved Work with thin Plates of Gold exactly fitted and adapted to it, 1 Kings 6. 35. VI. Hence it is apply'd to any Thing that is, or appears to be, right, fit and proper; or that is made, spoken or done in a right, fit and proper Manner, as it should be, without any thing wrong, irregular or out of Course, Jud. 14. 3. 1 Sam. 18. 20, 26. 2 Sam. 17. 4. 1 Kings 9. 12. 2 Kings 10. 3, 15. 1 Chron. 13. 4. Job 6. 25. Prov. 8. 9. —11. 24. —14. 12. Eccles. 7. 29. Jer. 18. 4. —27. 5. VII. To make an Agreement, to set things straight and right between Parties, Dan. 11. 6. VIII. To be morally straight and even, right, just and equitable; not deviating from the direct and plain Rule of Truth, Integrity and

and Justice. Job 33. 27. Mic. 3. 9. Psal. 17. 2. Thus the Lord is right, Deut. 32. 4. Psal. 25. 8. —92. 15. Thus God's Word, Statutes, Judgments, Precepts are right and straight, Neb. 9. 13. Psal. 19. 8. —33. 4. —119. 128, 137. Hof. 14. 9. Thus a Heart sincerely disposed to obey them is straight and even, 2 Chron. 29. 34. Psal. 7. 10. —125. 4. Thus a Way or Course of Action, is straight, Psal. 37. 14. Prov. 2. 13. —4. 11. —21. 8. Thus a Person who acteth sincerely according to Truth and Righteousness is straight and even, Job 1. 1. —8. 6. —23. 7. Psal. 11. 7. —37. 37. Prov. 21. 29. —29. 27. Mic. 2. 7. Thus the sceptre of a Kingdom is straight, when Regal Authority is impartially exercised in doing Justice, in straightening what is crooked, or righting what is wrong, Psal. 45. 6. Isai. 1. 17. This I think, is sufficient to shew the Force of this Word in all the Places where it is used.

Hath three Significations.

I. Relinquere, reliquum, residuum facere. To be stretched; particularly, as a String or Cord is stretched or strained to a Length over and above its common Length, Job 30. 11. [be hath loosed, relaxed, my Cord.] Which Cord in Job may be understood either of a Bow-string, as Psal. 11. 2. —21. 12. Judg. 16. 7. [seven green Withs; rather, seven new Bow-strings, made of twisted Guts, or of twisted Thongs cut out of raw Hides.] Or of the Cords which were fasten'd to the upper Part of a Tent, and were tied upon full stretch to a Pin driven into the Ground at a Convenient Distance from the Tent, to keep it firm and steady, [See Root 813.] as Jer. 10. 20. Exod. 35. 18. Numb. 3. 37. &c. [Signif. II.] Hence it is used figuratively to denote stretching still further, adding or advancing, Eccl. 12. 9, 12. also improvement, advantage, profit, Prov. 14. 23. Eccles. 1. 3. —3. 9. —6. 11. —7. 11. It is also used to comparatively, when one Thing stretches beyond, or exceeds, excels another, Gen. 49. 3, 4. [the excellency, or stretching, of dignity, and the excellency of Power, i. e. It is thy Due by Primogeniture to stretch beyond thy Brethren in Dignity and Power: but unstable as Water thou shalt not excel, or stretch beyond them.] Prov. 12. 26. —17. 7. [excellent Speech beyond what is common] Eccles. 2. 13. —3. 19. —6. 8. —7. 12. Isai. 56. 12. Dan. 8. 9. What stretcheth beyond a Sufficiency; Plenty, Abundance, Exod. 36. 7. Deut. 30. 9. 2 Kin. 4. 43. 2 Chron. 31. 10. Prov. 21. 5. Isai. 15. 7. Riches Jer. 48. 36. What stretches beyond what is eaten Exod. 12. 10. Ruth 2. 14. —used, Lev. 14. 18, 29. —wanted, 2 Kings 4. 7. Hence to reserve, Exod. 16. 19. Ruth 2. 18. 2 Sam. 8. 4. What stretches beyond what is destroy'd, or is lost and remains after Destruction, Numb. 26.

65. Job. 11. 11, 22. 1 Sam. 15. 15. Hence to preserve, or exempt from Death, Psal. 79. 11. What is left and remains, or stretches beyond what is done, or repair'd, Neb. 6. 1. —related, 1 Kings 11. 41. —provided for, Job. 17. 2, 6. —disposed of, Gen. 30. 36. 2 Sam. 10. 10. Ezek. 48. 15. —removed, taken away, 1 Sam. 30. 9. Jer. 27. 18. Time that remains, or that stretches, beyond a certain Period, Lev. 27. 18. What stretches beyond a Man's Life, or the Substance he leaveth behind him, Job 22. 20. Psal. 17. 14. A Number of People that exceed, or are an Overplus to, those already named, Judg. 7. 6. Neb. 4. 14.

Present of. For the Meaning of it, nothing can be produc'd but Conjecture. Only we may be pretty sure, from King Solomon's Munificence, that the Towns were in themselves a valuable District; but did not, in some Respect or other, suit Hiram's particular Taste or Fancy. There was something in the Aspect or situation that was not pleasing.

Hath five Significations.

I. Vox temporis. To be multiplied; [Signif. II.] to be many or much, numerous, copious; it signifies many joined together in any Case or Instance; and hence, to be strong as the Wind, and mighty as God, connoting, I suppose, the Notion of many combined Powers acting together, Job 36. 5. [All Excellency, Power and Wisdom, are combined in God.] In Hi-phil it signifies to make many, to multiply, Job 35. 16. Hence, perhaps, the Name of a thick sort of Cloth made of Goats Hair, [Signif. IV.] namely from the great Quantity of Stuff crowded into it. And the Idea of Multiplicity might give the Name to a Grate, a Sive, [Signific. III.] which have many open Spaces, through which the Ashes of the Fire, and the the Dust mixed with Corn do pass. From these small Spaces, perhaps may be taken the Idea of a small Distance, in a diminutive way of Speaking; [Signif.
V.] and of a small Space of Time, [Signif. I.] Eccles. 1. 10.
[See, this is new? it as been already of old Time + See, this is new, of a little Time, or short Standing? It hath been of old Time.] —2. 16. [that which is now for a little Space, in the days to come shall all be forgotten.] — 3. 15. That which hath been is now, &c. + that which hath been was but for a little Time, and that which should have been [done] was [observ'd] but for a little Time, and God requires [now] what is obsolete and neglected.] —4. 2. [which are already dead, &c. + which died in a little Time [after they were born] more than the living who continue longer in a miserable World.] —9. 6. [is now [in a little Time] perished. —6.
10. [What is that which is for a little Space of Time? Ans.
A Thing that is [often] named, and is known to be MAN.]
This is the best Account I can give of this Root.

As for לכידור (Job 15. 24.) he sheweth from the Arabic that it may signify a State of the greatest Confusion and Trouble; and that the Place may be rendered thus: [they shall prevail against him as a King; he is destined to fall into the greatest Confusion.]

כּוּם 836

Hath two Significations.

I. Calix, poculum. A Cup. It is commonly used figuratively in the Psalms and Prophets to signify the Allotments of Divine Providence, whether joyous, Psal. 16. 5. or calamitous, Psal. 75. 8. Isai. 51. 17. Ezek. 23. 33. It represents also the Poison of Idolatry, intoxicating the Nations, and made delicious by Artifice, or alluring by the Ornaments of Wealth and Splendor, Jer. 51. 7. For the Cup of Salvation, Psal. 116. 13. See Root 810. And probably the Cup of Consolation, Jer. 16. 7, is to be understood in the same Manner, of Friends meeting to comfort such as had lost a dear Relation.

- Poculum* כּוּם * 1

Et pocula וְכַסּוֹת 10

II. Bubo, avis: Bochart is uncertain what Fowl it is; but conjectures it may be the Onocrotalus, a Water-fowl, that makes a loud and doleful Noise.

- Bubo* הַכּוּם * 11 the little owl Lev. 11. 17. Deut.
14. 16.
Sicut bubo כִּכּוּם 12

כּוּר 837

Hath three Significations.

I. Catinus, fornax. A Crucible; a Vessel which would bear the hottest Fire, and in which Metals of all Sorts were refin'd. Hence, figuratively, Afflictions, considered as proper, and appointed of God to purge from the dross of Sin, and to refine the Mind into greater purity. The Iron-furnace seems to denote Afflictions of the heaviest Kind.

- Fornax* כּוּר * 1 the furnace 1 Kings 8. 51. Ezek.
22. 18, 20, 22.
Et catinus וְכוּר 2

Celari, abscondi: excindere. This Word undoubtedly signifies both to hide, to conceal; and to cut off, to demolish: probably in the same Manner as in Latin deleo signifies both to blot out a Writing, and to demolish a State or City. What is cut off, swept away or demolished is considered as hidden or removed out of Sight.

כִּיד 845

Hath two Significations.

I. Lancea, hasta. An offensive Weapon, which Joshua had in his Hand in the Battle, and which, at God's Command he stretched out with his Hand, as a Signal, Josh. 8. 18. This Weapon Goliath hung upon his Back, between his Shoulders, as the most convenient Situation, when he did not use it, 1 Sam. 17. 6; but as, we may suppose, the Handle of it stood up above his left Shoulder, he could easily reach it, when wanted in Fight. It cannot be described with any Certainty. It might be a missile Weapon, like a Javelin or Lance, or the Telum of the Romans, not so long as a Spear. The Word is perhaps derived from כִּיד Destruction, Job 21. 20. [Signif. II.]

Lanceae * כִּידוֹן 1 of a spear Job 41. 29 + 21.
Et lancea * כִּידוֹן 2

I. Concha, vas lotionis. A Laver; a large Vessel of Brass in the Tabernacle and Temple which held Water for washing the Hands and Feet of the Priests. See Dr. Patrick's Comment. on Exod. 30. 28, &c. Solomon's Scaffold of Brasses, (2 Chron. 6. 13.) being raised on the Sides, might bear some Resemblance to those Lavens. And so might the Hearth, Zech. 12. 6. [Signif. II.] Pans, or Pots of Earth, of a particular Form, for boiling of Meat, 1 Sam. 2. 14. Lev. 11. 35. Why the Word, in this last Place, is used in the dual Number is uncertain, and of no importance.

I. Omnis, &c. As a Noun and Particle, it denotes Universality; all, the whole, wholly, every one, &c. [Signif. I. II.] Judg. 20. 40. [the Flame of the City, † the whole of the City, ascended up [in a Flame] to Heaven.] As a Verb it signifies to be wholly Beautiful, to be compleat in Beauty, or in all the Ornaments, that make a beautiful Appearance, [Signif. IV.] Ezek. 16. 14. — 23. 12. — 27. 3, 4. All sorts of Apparel that make a beautiful Dress, Ezek. 27. 24. — 38. 4. It is easily understood in all the Cases to which it is apply'd; except Dan. 9. 24. to finish the transgression. By abolishing the Law, as it subjects to Death for every Transgression, and by introducing the Grace of the Gospel, which pardons and restores the Penitent to Life, our Lord has restrained and put a Stop to the deadly Nature of Transgression.

End of the Thigh-bone is in-

Numb. 7. 84. We cannot well understand how the Handles of the Lock, (Cant. 5. 5.) come under this Root, unless we had a clear Idea of the Form of those Handles. Clouds (Job 36.
32.) seem to have no Relation to the Force of this Word: Schultens renders the Place more probably thus, He covers both his Hands with Lightning. Coc-

Sense.

Cherubb, cherubinus. It is evident that the four living Creatures in Rev. 4. 6, 7, 8. are the same with the four living Creatures, called also Cherubims, in Ezek. 1. 5, &c. — 10. 1, &c. But the four living Creatures, and the four and twenty Elders, Rev. 5. 8, 9, joined in singing a new Song to the Lamb, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Book and to open the Seals thereof; for thou wast Slain, and hast redeemed Us unto God by thy Blood, out of every KINDRED and TONGUE and PEOPLE and NATION. The Angels joined in the Chorus which follows, Ver. 11, 12. But none but such as belong to the Church of God in this World, none but MEN, could join in this Song. The twenty four Elders, it is generally agreed, represent the Priests, or Ministers of the Church; and then the four living Creatures, or Cherubim, must represent the People or Body of the Church of God upon Earth. This suits Ezekiel's Cherubim very well: they represent the Church of God attended with the Wheels, or Revolutions of his Providence. And so the Cherubim in the Temple, especially those over the Mercy-Seat, may properly denote the Church on Earth, where God hath set his Throne, and in the midst of which he dwells or reigns, Numb. 7. 89. Psal. 99. 1. Ezek. 9. 3. In this View, the Cherubim must be considered as hieroglyphical, denoting the Perfection or Combination of all spiritual and moral Excellencies, which constitute the Character of God's faithful Servants, or Subjects, under the hieroglyphical Forms of a Man, a Bullock, a Lion, an Eagle, all with Wings, full of Eyes, &c. [1 Kings 7. 29. Lions, Oxen and other Cherubims; or, the other Forms which constitute the Cherubim.] But this will not take in the Sense of Cherub and Cherubim in other Places. Some general Notion, that will suit all Cases, should, if possible, be found out; as, suppose, to be perfect, or perfectly accomplished. Apply'd to a Bullock in full Vigor, (Ezek. 10. 14.) as that, among the Herds, is the most perfect in Strength and Usefulness. — To the Prince of Tyra, (Ezek. 28. 14.) compleat (at least in his own proud Conceit) in Dignity, Power, Policy, Wealth, Splendor; [anointed, inaugurated, duly established in Royalty; covering, soaring above and protecting others.] — To that which is most perfect and powerful in Velocity, Psal. 18. 10. — To the Guard upon the Tree of Life, Gen. 3. 24. Possibly it may here be apply'd to Angels; but we can only say, with Certainty, that the Cherubim and flaming Sword, which turned every way, denote some perfect and irresistible Power, which render'd the Tree of Life, here upon Earth, quite inaccessible. But through Christ, blessed be God, free Access is granted to it in the future World, Rev. 2. 7. — 22. 2.

Caedere, succidere, abscindere, exscindere. To cut off; to separate one Part [of the human Body, of a Garment, a Tree, a River, Meat] from another Exod. 4. 25. Num. 11. 33. [ere the Flesh was chewed † cut or bit off with the Teeth.] Job. 3. 13. 1 Sam. 17. 51. —24. 5. Isai. 18. 5. To cut a sacrificed Bullock in twain, Jer. 34. 18. [a solemn ancient Rite used in confirming a Grant of Blessings, or a Compact.

The Parts of the Animal cut in two were laid on each Side at a Distance, and either the Party granting, or both Parties contracting, passed between them, Gen. 15. 9, 10, 17. [The Shechinah, or Token of the Divine Presence, passed between the Pieces. It is observable, that the next Verse is the first Place in Scripture where כרת is applied to the cutting or making of a Covenant.] Hence the proper Force of the Word seems to be, in this Case, solemnly to ratify a Grant, or Agreement. It is also elegantly used to signify a strong Resolution, Job 31. 1.] To cut down an Idol 2 Chron. 15. 16. To fell Timber, Jer. 10. 3. 2 Kings 18. 4. Figuratively, to cut a Man off from the Land of the Living, Jer. 11. 19. To destroy, Gen. 9. 11. Wine or Meat, is cut off, when intercepted or destroy'd, Joel 1. 5, 16. A Man's Name is cut off when extinct, Ruth 4. 10. Expectation is cut off when disappointed, Prov. 23. 18. Kindness is cut off when it ceaseth, 1 Sam. 20. 15. A Wife is cut off when divorced, Deut. 24. 1. An Heir to a Crown is cut off when hinder'd from possessing it, 1 Kings 2. 4. Once it is used in a good Sense, to be cut off, or exempted from being Slaves, Job. 9. 23. and so perhaps it is to be understood, 2 Sam. 3. 29. [let there not fail, let none be exempted from having an Issue &c.] But how the Word is apply'd to making a Covenant, Compact or Agreement, I do not certainly understand. Probably it alludes to some Rite, or significative Action, used upon such Occasions. To cut the Calf in twain, laying the Parts on each Side at a Distance, answering to one another, and then to pass between them, was certainly one Way of confirming a Compact, Jer. 34. 18, 19; and very ancient too. For thus the Lord confirmed the Grant of Blessings to Abraham, Gen. 15. 9, 10, 17. As hath been observed above.

Carmel, nom. propr. Arvum; spica virens. A fruitful Field, or Hill; Figuratively, the Fruit that grows in such a Field; green Ears, or rather the best and fullest Ears of Corn. The proper Name of a Hill and of a Town. But what Connection Crimson-Colour has with the Root, I cannot see; unless as כרמל signifies the best and choicest Fields, and Corn, So כרמיל may signify the choicest and most beautiful Colour, Crimson.

green Ezth. 1. 6. [† Under white Callico and blue, fastened with Cords of fine Linen and Purple, &c. To give some Notion of the Grandure of this Feast, I remark; that in eastern Coun-

Countries their Houses are built round a Court, in which, upon extraordinary Occasions, Company is entertained, being straw'd with Matts and Carpets. And as the Court lies open to the Skie, it is usual in Summer to have it shelter'd from the Heat of the Sun, by a large Umbrella or Veil, which being expanded upon Ropes reaching a-crofs the Court from one Side of the Top of the House to the other, may be folded or unfolded at Pleasure. The Psalmist seems to allude to some Covering of this Kind, Pfal.

104. 2. who stretch out the Heavens like a Curtain. Isai. 40. 22. Shaw's Travels p. 247. Now the Persian King entertain'd the whole City of Shushan, great and small, for seven Days together, in the Court of the Garden of the Kings Palace. In that Garden we must suppose a very spacious Area, probably containing many Acres, curiously pay'd, and having lofty Columns of Marble erected in Rows, at a proper Distance: to the Tops of those Columns were fixed Rings of Silver, through which they drew purple Cords of fine Linen a-crofs from Row to Row, and from Pillar to Pillar; and over those Cords they spread large Sheets of delicate Callico, possibly painted with Blue, which would make a very splendid and beautiful Skie over all the Court, and a delightful Shade to all the Guests. Instead of Matts and Carpets they had Beds or Couches of Gold and Silver to sit upon, and were serv'd with Wine in Vessels of Gold. This is the Idea I have of the Furniture of this superb Entertainment.]

I. Later. A Brick, a Tile. A Brick-kiln. A Pavement laid after the Manner of curious Brick-work. The Connection with the other Senses is uncertain; unless we may suppose, that the Bricks in those Parts and Ages of the World were of the white Sort. [Signif.

Mountains, as well as in low Grounds; and much celebrated

III. Thus. Frankincense; a known Gum extracted from a Shrub in Arabia. It burns with a bright and strong Flame, not easily extinguished. Raii Hist. plant. Tom. II. p. 1840. It was used in the Temple-Ser-vice as an Emblem of Prayer. Psal. 141. 2. Rev. 8. 3, 4. The Connection with the other Senses is but uncertain. Authors give it, or the best Sort of it, the Epithets of pure, bright, pellucid; and, so perhaps it may have some Relation to Signific. VI.

IV. Libanus mons. A famous Mountain on the North Part of the Land of Israel, very much covered with Snow, (Jer. 18. 14.) which giving it a white Appearance, might also give it the Name of Lebanon. [See Signif. VI.] The Tower of Lebanon, (Cant. 7. 4.) might stand upon Mount Lebanon: but the House of the Forest of Lebanon, (which Solomon built, and who gave it that Name perhaps on account of the large Quantity of Cedar or Fir, that was used in building it) stood in Jerusalem; as appears from 1 Kings 10. 17, 21. Isai. 22. 8. Not on Mount Lebanon, but surely in Jerusalem, Solomon deposited two Hundred Targets, three Hundred Shields, and other Vessels of Gold, 2 Chron. 9. 15, 16, 20. Cocceii Lex.

III. Serpens marinus, Levijathan. The Crocodile. Bochart. Which from the scaly Quality and Hardness of it's Coat is in no Danger of having his Skin filled with barbed Irons, or his Head with Fish-Spears; nor can it be caught, and drawn out of the River with a Hook, such is the Bulk thereof. The Crocodile therefore may be well taken for the Levijathan describ'd in the forty first Chapter of Job. Shaw's Travels, Supplement p. 86. But the learned Schultens judges that the whole of that Description agrees best with the Dragon or over grown Serpent. I am inclined to the Crocodile. But whether Crocodile or Dragon in Job Chap. 41, it seems to signify the Whale, or some Fish of enormous Size in the Sea Psal. 104. 26. a Serpent Isai. 27. 1. Any dreadful Monster Job 3. 8. לחם 953

Hath two Significations.

I. Uesci. To eat, to devour or consume, Deut. 32. 24. [The Flesh of the Sinners (spoken of in Zeph. 1. 17.) is called לחם in a passive Sense; with respect to it's Corruptibility, or it's being exposed, or being fit only to be devoured by Beasts and Fowls. So Job 20. 23, and shall rain [bitter Suffering] upon him while he is eating: rather, shall rain upon him in his devourable Flesh, i. e. which is only fit to be eaten, devoured, consumed. Alluding to Job's Sufferings. The Sense which Schultens gives of this Clause seems to be a Tautology, or no more than a Repetition of the Sentiment, which he hath placed at the Beginning of the Verse.] II. Any kind of Victuals, Food, Meat, Provision, whether Bread, Flesh or Fruit, Jer. 11. 19. But Bread is principally intended, as the eastern People in general are great Eaters of Bread; it being computed, saith Dr. Shaw in his Travels, that three Persons in four live upon it, or upon such Compositions as are made of Barley and Wheat-Flower. As אכל [Root 62.] signifies both to eat, and to consume, particularly by the sword; so this Root לחם signifies to eat, and to devour, to eat up, to consume Men, Deut. 32. 24. Numb. 14. 9. [they are Bread for us, to be eaten up or destroyed by us. See Psal. 14. 4.] And thus it is by a natural Propriety applied to War and Fighting, which eat up Men, or consume them.

See Joel 3 † 4. 18.] Figuratively, it is used to signify the dissolving of the Heart, or being quite dispirited; or the dissolving of a Nation, or it's being all shattered'd to pieces. Hath two Significations.

I. Moveri, dimoveri, nutare, declinare, vacillare.

This Word is apply'd to Things fixed, firm, compact and strongly connected; and signifies their being violently shoved, shaken, heaved or wrenched, so as to be displaced, disordered, disjoined, disjointed, disabled, cast down, or quite overthrown; in opposition to their remaining fixed, firm and stable in their proper Place and Strength, 1 Chron. 16. 30. Psal. 93. 1. Job 41. 23 † 15. [The Flakes of his Flesh—are firm in themselves, they cannot be moved, disjoined, separated.] Isai. 41. 7. [he fastened it with Nails, that it should not be moved, disjoined either in the Cohesion of it's Parts, or from the Wall or Pedestal to which it was strongly joined.] Psal. 125. 1. [mount Zion cannot be removed, violently shoved or heaved out of it's Place, or separated from it's Base, and overthrown.] Hence it appears, that the Disjoining of coherent Parts enters into the Force of this Word. And thus fallen into decay, (Lev. 25. 35.) may be rendered, his Hand is disjoined, i. e. if he is any ways disabled from procuring a Livelihood, Psal. 55. 22 [he shall never suffer the Righteous to be moved, perhaps, disjointed, quite disabled from procuring a Supply of their Wants.] And thus, perhaps, the sliding, slipping or moving of the Feet may be understood derstood of a Dislocation, especially as it is once set in Connection with balting, Psal. 38. 16, 17. — 60. 2. [beal the Breaches of the Earth, Nation, for it shaketh, is disjointed, shattered.] Psal. 82. 5. [all the Foundations of the Earth, the whole Government of the Nation is out of Course.] It is also used to signify being shaken, shoved or wrenched from a State of Prosperity, Psal. 10. 6; or of Authority, Prov. 25. 26. [A righteous Man falling down, forcibly thrown out of Authority, before, by the prevailing Power of, the Wicked.] In these and other Places it denotes Detriment, to the Persons or Things, that are shov'd, shaken, &c. But in two Places that Idea is wanting, namely in Psal. 55. 3. [they cast, shove, heave Iniquity upon me; i. e. load me with false Accusations.] Psal. 140. 10. [let burning Coals fall, be heaved, upon them.] It certainly admits the Notion of being forcibly carried from one Place to another, Psal. 46. 2. [though the Mountains be carried, shoved, heaved, into the Heart of the Sea.] Prov. 24. 11. [those that are ready to be slain, that are violently shov'd, hurried away to Slaughter.] Hence, a Pole, Lever or Stong by which Burthens were heaved up and carried between two Men upon their Shoulders, Numb. 13. 23. Also a Yoke, Pole or Stong laid across over both the Shoulders, of a single Man, and by certain Bands fasten'd about the Necks of Slaves, who were obliged to carry heavy Burthens on each End of the Pole, Jer. 27. 2. — 28. 10, 12, 13. [See Signif. II.] על is used to signify the same Thing, Jer. 28. 11.

II. Gladii, machaerae: Commoratio, conversatio as-fidua. These Significations do not seem to belong to this Root.
 The following Hebrew Words should rather, in my Opinion, come under כָּרָה [890] to prepare, provide, make ready. And thus the Sense in all the Passages in Ezekiel, will be the Place where your Existence was prepared, or made ready; i. e. the Place; or State, from whence you sprung, or took your Original.
 And in Gen. 49. 5. it may signify, as Zeph. 2. 6, Shepherds Huts, provided to shelter them while attending upon their Flocks. [See Root 890: 12.] Thus מ is not radical, but beemantic.

Conversations מִכְּרֹתָיִךְ * 63 tuæ Thy birth Ezek. 16. 3.
Conversatorium מִכְּרֹתָיִךְ 64

מלל 1030

Hath two Significations.

I. Circumcidere. See the Root מוּל.

II. Loqui, dicere. The Hebrew Words דָּבַר, אָמַר and מָלַל may differ in the same Manner as the English Words to say, to to speak and to talk. However to talk in Conversation, to tell, to relate, seem best to agree with this here Root, Psal. 106.

2. [who can talk over, tell, relate, the mighty Acts of the Lord.] Job 6. 26. [Do ye imagine to reprove Talk, or Words of course, that will not bear a severe Examination?] — 30. 9. [I am their by-word; their Talk, the Subject of their scandalous Reflections, when they converse together.] Psal. 139. 4. [There is not a Word of common Talk in my Tongue.] Jer. 11. 16. [with the Noise of a great Tumult, of great talking together] Ezek. 1. 24.
 [the Voice of Speech, of People talking together.] Gen. 21. 7.
 [Who in common Talk, in Conversation, would have said to Abraham] 2 Sam. 23. 2. [and his Talk, Discourse, was in my Tongue, not what I learnt by talking or conversing with any Man.] Job 35. 4. [I will answer thee † I will return Talk to thee, &c. alluding perhaps to the Conversation of Job and his Friends, which he calls Talk, Chap. 32. 11, 14. — 33. 8.]
 The Student may see how this Notion will agree with all the other Places. This Root may partake of the Force of מוּל [1004: 7.] to cut off; and may imply the Parts, Breaks, Sections into which interlocutory Discourse is cut. But it is doubtful whether מְלִילָה, Ears of Corn, can thus be accounted for.

To fill the Hand unto the Lord, is to ingage fully, or heartily in his Cause or Service, 2 Chron. 29. 31. Exod. 32. 29. XXIII. To fill the Hand for the Office of a Priest, is solemnly to set a Person apart to it, as the Employment to which his whole Life is to be appropriated; to consecrate, Numb. 3. 3. XXIV. Fruit, + fulness of thy Seed, is the Corp which the Seed produces, Deut. 22. 9. XXV. A Multitude, + fulness, i. e. not a few, but, respectively, a full Number of Nations, Men, &c. Gen. 48. 19. Isai. 31. 4. Jer. 12. 6. XXVI. Fulness of Number, is the full Tale, or whole Number, 1 Sam. 18. 27. XXVII.

Fulness of Days, is the full Extent of human Life, Isai. 65. 20. Jer. 6. 11. XXVIII. Fulness of Extension, is the whole Extent, or Dimensions, 1 Sam. 28. 20. Isai. 8. 8. Ezek. 41. 8. Cant. 5. 12 [His Eyes are as Doves by Pools of Water, washed with Milk, Situate upon the Fulness, i. e. מנה 1039

Hath four Significations.

I. Numerare, supputare.

To number, to count, in order to ascertain the precise Sum total, or any particular Sum.
Hence I. A Denomination of Money, being a certain Number of Shekels, called therefore Ma-neh, a Sum counted. [See below Nº. 11.] II. To assign appoint, allot. [Signif. II. IV.] III. A certain Measured, Part, or Portion assigned or allotted.
[Signif. III.] But this does not ascertain the Derivation of Manna. That depends upon the Meaning of the Expression מן דוּא which the Israelites used when they first saw it. If it means, what is it? then Manna is but the Chaldee Particle מן turned into a Noun. [See Root 1038.] But if it means, it is a Portion, something that God has appointed for us, then it belongs to this Root.

Hath two Significations.

I. Praevaricari. It is not easy to fix the precise Sense of this Word, so as to distinguish it from וְקָעוּרָה and פָּשַׁע. Coccejus gives, to prevaricate, to deal unfaithfully, to cover Enmity under the Appearance of Friendship, to violate Duty under Pretence of discharging it: thus Saul disobeyed God, and yet pretended he had done what God had commanded, 1 Chron. 10. 13. So the Woman, Numb. 5. 27, might be unfaithful to her Husband while she pretended to be a true Wife. The whole Congregation supposed the Reubenites had trespassed in building a prohibited Altar, under Pretence of Worshipping the true God, Josh. 22. 16. Uzziab pretended to honour God by burning Incense in a Manner not allowed by the Law, 2 Chron. 26. 18. If the King's Mouth wilfully transgresseth in Judgment, Prov. 16. 10, it must be under a Shew and Pretence of doing Justice. Schultens upon Job 21. 34, favoureth this Interpretation of the Root. Thus it will signify, to violate the Law when a Person designeth, either really or in Pretence only, to observe it. But I am not sure this will always hold good. Mr. Ainsworth, upon Lev. 5. 15, saith, Though this Word be generally used for all Transgression and Disloyalty, that the inferior committeth against the Superior, as the Wife against her Husband, Numb. 5. 12, and the like: yet for the most Part, it is applied to Evils committed against the Lord, and his Covenant, Service and holy Things.

Vox indeclinabilis. This Particle comes from ענה to answer [Root 1387.] and is really a Noun signifying the Answer or Correspondence of one thing to another; as, 1. of the End to the Means, Gen. 18. 19. [For I know him, have a special Regard to him, and manifest my self to him in a particular Manner, that, for the answering of the thing to the End that, he may command his Children, &c. that, to the End that, the Lord may bring &c.] Or 2. of the Effect to the Cause, or rather to the Reason, Motive or Occasion of doing a thing, Isai. 62. 1. For Zion's Sake, for the answering of the thing to Zion. Ezek. 20. 9. for my Name's Sake, i. e. for the Answering or Correspondence of the Thing effected to my Name, or Honour, as the Reason, Motive.

II. Attenuatum: tenuitas.
What Relation this Sense hath to Revolt and Rebellion I cannot see. I should rather derive it from יָרַד [795.] as it signifies to come down from a higher to a lower Condition. Thus it imports to be reduc'd, to be brought into low, poor, wretched Circumstances, as the Jewish State was, Lam. 1. 9. (she came down מִרְדָּה or was brought low, wonderfully.) And to her low miser-

miserable Condition this here Word in the same Book is twice apply'd.

I. Rebellare. To act contrary to the Commands and Orders of a Superior, to disobey, to be disobedient, Psal. 105. 28. [they rebelled not against, disobeyed not, his Word, i. e. his Command was not disobeyed, but executed; the thing was effected. Or Moses and Aaron disobeyed not his Word, though with seeming Danger to themselves from Pharaoh's Resentment. Ainsworth. I cannot find any Necessity for extending the Sense of this Root further than to disobey. And therefore where a different Sense is required in any of the following Places I presume we must seek for a different Root. As bitter 2 Kings 14. 26. Job 23. 2. from מרה [1064.] as it signifies the Bitterness of Suffering. Provoke, provocation, Exod. 23. 21. Job 17. 2. Psal. 106. 7, 33, 43. Isai. 3. 8. from the same, as it signifies to exasperate. Trahere, extrahere, pro-trahere. To draw, to draw out, to draw after. I. To draw as Beasts in the Plough or Waggon, Deut. 21. 3. Figuratively, to draw Iniquity along like a Plough, (keeping it at Work, promoting and encouraging the Practice of it) with Cords of Vanity, idle Pre-texts, Arguments and Allegations, Isai. 5. 18. Hof. 7. 5. [he stretcheth out, draweth, his hand with Scorners. He draweth his Hand with, he joins and encourrages, the Profane.] To draw to the Field of Battle, by God's secret Providence, Judg. 4. 7.
Or by other Methods, Ezek. 32.
20. To draw to Destruction, Job 24. 22. Psal. 28. 3. Ezek.
32. 20. To draw by the pleasing Motives of Goodness, or by that that which is most apt to influence the human Mind, Jer. 31. 3. Hof. 11. 4. Job 28. 18. [the Price of Wisdom, the Drawing, the Moment of it's Influence, is above Rubies. There is much more in Wisdom to engage our Esteem than in Rubies.] Ecclef. 2. 3. [to give myself unto wine † to draw, to please, indulge, my Flesh with Wine.] To draw by Artifice, or deceitful Practices, Psal. 10. 9. II. To draw the Feet along, to march, to advance towards a Place, Judg. 4. 6. —20. 37. [drew themselves along; rather, advanc'd.] Job 21. 33. III. To draw the Pen or Style along the Line in writing, Judg. 5. 14. IV. To draw, or cast the Seed in a regular Line or Course in sowing Corn, Amos 9. 13. [that soweth, draweth the, Seed.] Psal. 126. 6. [precious Seed † the drawing of the Seed, or Seed of drawing, sowing; the Seed to be sown, or Seed-Corn. To draw out of a Pit, Gen. 37. 28. —out of the Water, Job 41. 1. IX. To draw, or cull, Sheep out of the Flock, Exod. 12. 21. What is the Meaning of a Nation scattered, drawn (Isai. 18. 2.) cannot be known, unless we knew the particular Circumstances of that Nation. I cannot find that this Word משך ever signifies to bind or tie up; Therefore we must understand the Bands of Orion (Job 38. 31.) of drawing Bands or Traces, with which the Winter is figuratively represented as drawing the Flowers, Verdure, and all the Pleasures of the Spring and Summer to Destruction; according to Sense I. [See Root 876. Signif. II.]

משל 1077

Hath two Significations.

I. Dominari. To be superior. To have the Power, Authority and Dominion of a Governor. Applied to the Power and Authority of a Master over his Slave, Exod. 21. 8. [to sell her—he shall have no Power † he shall not rule to the selling of her; or so far as to have Power to sell her.] —to the Authority of a Steward, or Sub-Governor, Gen. 24. 2. —45. 26. —of Adam over Eve, —3. 16. —of the Rich over the Poor, Prov. 22. 7. —to the Dominion of a King, Dan. 11. 4, 5. [Dominion is put for the Subjects of Dominion, 2 Chron. 32. 9. all his Power, Dominion, Forces, with him.] —to the Dominion of God, Psal. 103. 19. Figuratively, applied to the Dominion of Sin in the Heart, Psal. 19. 13. —to the Government of one's Passions, Prov. 16. 32. To be superior in Excellence Gen. 1. 16, 18. [the Sun ruleth over the Day, and the Moon over the Night, as they shine with a Light superior to the other heavenly Bodies.] Hence a Saying or sententious Speech of superior Excellence, Weight or Importance, [Signif. II.] Numb. 23. 7, 18. 1 Sam. 24. 13. Job 27. 1. Psal. 49. 4. —78. 2. Prov. 1. 1. This we render by Parable, or Proverb. And those Parables at first, and principally consisted of Metaphors, Similes or Comparisons, whereby one thing was liken'd to another, which is very apt to strike the Mind, and to form popular, proverbial Expressions in all Countries, Ezek. 18. 2. Hab. 2. 6.

2. 6. Job 17. 6. [He hath made me a by-word of the People, i. e. I am made a Simile to represent great Wretchedness; as wretched as Job. And to this Day we say, as poor as Job. Thus 'tis threatned, the Jews should be made a Proverb, a By-word, as miserable, &c. as a Jew, Deut. 28. 37. 1 Sam. 10. 12. 1 Kings 9. 7. Psal. 44. 14. —69. 11.] Hence, as the Simile or Comparison was the proper and common Form of משל eminent Sayings, the Word may have come to signify to compare, to liken in general, Job 13. 12. Psal. 49. 12. This is the best Account I can give of this Word.

Cunctari, morari. To tarry longer than there is, or seems to be, any Occasion; to delay, to loiter, to linger. At first Sight any one would judge that this Root is a Composition of מה what? twice repeated.
As if it was, to stand whatwhat-ing, what if this? what if that?
i. e. to stand asking impertinent Questions, which serve only to waste Time. So I have heard some Englishmen say; Don't stand shallishallying, which is a Composition of shall I? shall I? and has nearly the same Sense with this Word.

- Cunctatus sum* התמהמהתי 1

Cunctantur התמהמהו 2

Help. An Epitrope. As if he had said, If you loiter and delay your Repentance, the Judgments of God will shortly fill you with Wonder and Astonishment; if you indulge yourselves in Luxury and Pleasure, you will shortly cry out for Help in great Trouble.]

But his Wife looked back from behind him upon the Road, before he reached Zoar, Ver. 26. Therefore, when she looked back, Sodom and the fine Country about it, appeared in the same quiet, serene State as ever. Consequently, she looked with a Look of Affection to the Place, of Regret to leave it and their Goods that were in it, and of Unbelief and Distrust of what the Angels affirmed, that God would immediately destroy the Place. She did not believe or regard it; she stop'd by the Way; she would go no further; and might be at a considerable Distance from Zoar, and so near to Sodom, as probably, to be involv'd in the horrible Shower, and thereby turn'd into a nitro-sulphureous Pillar.

Hath fix Significations.

I. Emarcescere, flaccescere, cadere, decidere ex marcore. To be exhausted of the natural Moisture and Spirits, in which the Life of a Plant or Animal consists. I. Apply'd to Plants and Fruits, it is to wither, to wither so as to drop from the Tree. Isai. 34. 4. [their Hosts shall wither, as the Leaf withereth from the Vine, and the withered Fig from the Figtree.] —40. 7. 'Tis applied to the possible crumbling down and wasting away of a Hill, Job 14. 18. [Signif. I.] II. Apply'd to Men 'tis variously used. (1.) It signifies the Loss of Spirit and Courage, 2 Sam. 22. 46. Exod. 18. 18. [thou wilt—wear away, wither thy Strength and Spirits.] 2 Sam. 3. 33. [Died Abner as a fool, a cowardly, spiritless Fellow, dieth? No. He was not through Cowardice, or Defect of Valour, taken Prisoner of War, bound and so put to Death; that would never have happen'd; but he was slain by the vilest Treachery.] (2.) The Loss of Power, Wealth, Honour, Grandure, Happiness, Psal. 37. 2. Isai. 24. 4. Jer. 17. 11. [and at his End shall be a Fool, shall drop off like a withered Leaf or Fig; shall be stript of all his Wealth and Happiness.] Particularly of Reputation and Esteem, Nah. 3. 6. [I will make thee Vile, withered, exhausted as to Reputation.] Jer. 14. 21. [do not disgrace, wither, the Throne of thy Glory, the Temple; do not suffer it to be reduc'd to the State of a Leaf or Fig that is withered and drops off.] This may sometimes be done impiously and undutifully, Deut. 32. 15. [he lightly esteemed, withered, the Rock of his Salvation; made him to drop off from his Heart, as withered Foliage from a Tree.] So Mic. 7. 6. [the Son dishonoureth, withereth in his Heart and Actions, the Father.] (3.) It is apply'd to the withered, corrupt, vicious State of the Mind and Morals, destitute of Wisdom, Goodness and every Principle of Virtue, [Signif. II.] Deut. 32. 6. Psal. 39. 8. Isai. 32. 5, 6. Hence נבלה Folly; rather Vice, Villany, or what can be supposed in bad Morals to be answerable to sapless, withered Flowers, Leaves or Fruit, Gen. 34. 7. Josh. 7. 15. Judg. 19. 23, 24. (4.) It is applied to the Body of Man or Beast bereft of the inward Principles of Life and fallen to the Ground; a Carcase. Signif. III.] (5.) It is peculiarly applied to the Deluge; not as if it signified a Flood, though it be so rendered in the Bible, but as it denotes the Extinction of Men and other Animals, or their being bereft of the Principles of Life, and reduc'd to the State of withered fallen Fruit, Gen. 6. 17. [a Flood of Waters, an Extinction of Life by Waters.]

- IV. Uter, lagena. A Bag made of Skin for holding Wine. I imagine this was properly the Bag in which Wine was kept at Home, (though the lesser Sort would also serve for carrying it abroad) and that it was made of a whole Skin of Goat or Bullock; which being fitted at both Ends (perhaps by the Skins of the Legs) for being suspended upon Hooks or Beams, when filled with Wine, would resemble the Carcase of the Beast to which it once belong'd. Thus we might see a greater Propriety in Job's comparing the Clouds suspended on high, to these leathern Bottles, with Taps, properly inserted, for drawing off the Liquor. [See Signif. VI.] But this Form of them is only my own Fancy. In any Shape they might be imitated by the Potter, and so the Name be also apply'd to his earthen Ware.

expressive of Contempt, Scorn shall be a Heap, a removing into Captivity, in a grievous Day, and of desperate Sorrow.] נָדַד a Heap [Root 1108.] Seems to come from this Root; and Root, as a Heap is a Collection of Matter remov'd out of one Situation into another.

Hath two Significations:

Psal. 59. 15. ¶ they shaken —

II. Sistra, instrumen- tum musicum. A musical Instrument which takes it's Name probably from either the shaking, wandering Motions of the Player, as upon the Spinnet, or from the like Motions of the Instrument.

- Et cum fistris* וּבְמִנְעִנִים 28 and on cornets 2 Sam. 6. 5.

Hath three Significations.

I. Elevare, agitare, ven- tilare: offerre. To wave, to shake, to move to and fro with Agility, to brandish, 2 Kin.
 5. 11. [strike, wave, his Hand over.] Apply'd I. To the Waving the Hand as a Signal to call People together, or to direct them which way to go, Isai. 13. 2. II. To the shaking or brandishing the Hand by way of threatening Job 31.
 21. Isai. 10. 32. —19. 16.
 III. To God's shaking his Hand over a People in severe Judgments, Isai. 11. 15. Zech. 2.
 9. IV. To the waving of the Hand, or any Vessel in shedding or sprinkling abroad what is contained in it, [Signif. II.] Psal.
 68. 9. [Thou didst send, shed abroad, a plentiful Rain, as it were by waving the Hand, and and scattering it abroad.] Prov.
 7. 17. [I have perfumed, sprink- led, my Bed with Myrrh, &c. by waving or shaking the Hand, or Box, and shedding it all over the Bed.] Isai. 30. 28. [to sift, scatter as Dust, the Nations with the Sive of Vanity; a Sive, not for separating the Dust only and saving the Corn, but through which all should pass and fall to the Ground as vile Dust.] Hence, perhaps, Honey that draineth from the Comb laid in a Sive: which Honey dropping, or being percolated through the Sive, must be much purer, and freer from Dregs, than that which is forced out of the Comb, by the Hand, or otherwise, [Signif. II.] Psal. 19. 10. [or the Honey-Comb + the Dropping of the [spontaneously] flowing-Honey. See Root 1579: 5.] Prov. 5. 3. [drop as the Honey- Comb, as the purest Honey which drops from the Comb.] V. To the Waving, brandishing, moving to and fro with Agility, a Tool in working with it, Exod.
 20. 25. Deut. 23. 25. Isai. 10.
 15. VI. To the shaking or brandishing of a Rod or Staff in striking with it, Isai. 10.
 15. —30. 32. [in Battles of shaking, brandishing, will the Lord fight with it, with the Rod of his Vengeance: he will brandish it emphatically, vigorously, effectually to the total Ruin of the Enemies.] VII. To the waving of Offerings to and fro, up and down, and round about to all the Quarters of the World, in Token of solemn Dedication to God, the Lord and Possessor of all, Exod. 29. 24. —38. 24.

 The Priests too were thus offered, probably by Aaron's waving their Hands in the same Manner, Numb. 8. 11. This Word is also applied to the beautiful Situation of Mount Sion, Psal.
 48. 2. But in what Sense is doubtful. Perhaps the Jews apply'd brandishing to Objects and Prospects in the same Manner as we do the Word striking.
 Thus brandishing would be applied to a Place, or Ground remarkably elevated, and which struck the Eye more than any other in the same View. Beautiful of brandishing is Mount Sion, i. e. in striking the Eye with it's lofty, but charming, Elevation. And thus it might be apply'd to any District whose Situation was remarkably elevated and conspicuous. [Signif. III.]

II. Scintilla. Surely the Notion of a Spark is too low and feeble for the Prophet's Sense in Isai. 1. 31. A Spark, flying among Flax, may, or as it may happen, may not set Flax on Fire. But a Blaze comes up fully to the Purpose; thus: The strong Man, who thinks himself firmly established, and proof against all Events, shall in the Day of God's Vengeance be for, or become, Flax, and his idolatrous Work, the very Means by which he intended to secure himself, shall be for, shall become, (i. e. shall break out into) a Blaze and they shall both burn together, &c. Nor doth Sparkling so well suit Ezek.
1. 7. Homer, Illiad II. Line the Trojan Arms of Brass to the Blaze of a vastly extensive Wood all on Fire, upon a Mountain's Top. *Ηυτε πυρ αι-

65, he compares the shining of Hector's Arms of polish'd Brass to the Blaze of Lightning. So Ezek. 1. 7. and they blazed like the Show, or appearance, of bur-nish'd Brass. See Rev. 1. 15.
This is only my own Conjecture. However, to send forth a Blaze, may suit this Root as well as to send forth Blossoms.

II. Novellare. To till, to cultivate. As a Light, a Lamp signifies any Instance of Prosperity; so the Idea may not improperly be applied to fruitless Ground when it is cultivated and made fruitful. It is then enlightened, not only as it makes a better and more pleasing Appearance; but as it is in a more flourishing, beneficial State. But how fallow Ground (Jer. 4. 3. Hof. 10. 12,) which is not tilled, should be the meaning of a Word that imports to be tilled, I cannot comprehend. It should be render'd, Till to yourselves a Tillage, i. e. Be industrious, bring your Grounds into a cultivated, fruitful Condition; meaning their Minds and Morals. Or נִיר may be the Infinitive, just as נִירוֹ is the Imperative, of Hiphil, by an Aphaerefs of the ה; and then it will be rather more emphatical; thus: till to yourselves in tilling; till, cultivate for your own great Benefit with all possible Industry and Application.

Spargere, aspergere, inspergere, gi. To sprinkle. But in Isai. 52. 15, it seems to have a peculiar Meaning, which is not easily collected from the other Places where this Word is used. The Antitbesis points to Regard, Esteem, Admiration; thus: Ver. 14. As many were astonish'd at thee; — So shall he sprinkle, ingage the Esteem and Admiration of, many Nations. But how to deduce this from the Sense of the Word, I know not.

נזק 1140

Damnum.

In damno בנזק *

נזר 1141

Hath four Significations.

I. Separare, ri, recedere.

To be separated or sequestered in a religious, or in a distinguished Manner. Lev. 15. 31. [they shall separate the Children of Israel from, keep them clear of, their Uncleannefs.]—22. 2. [that they separate themselves, while they are unclean, from the holy Things, from eating of the Sacrifices.]—25. 5. [neither gather the Grapes of thy Vine un-dressed † of thy separation, (or of what is separated from thee) so called because the Vineyard in the sabbatical Year, was sequestered from the Owner's sole, private Use.] To separate one's self from the common Enjoyments of Life to Fasting and Humiliation, Zech. 7. 3. To be a Nazarite, or to be sequetered from common Life, and consecrated to God, according to the Rules given, Numb. 6. 2, &c. To wear the Hair long, without cutting or shaving it, was one Law and Sign of being a Nazarite, or in a State of peculiar Separation to God. Therefore, when Jerusalem, or Judea, is ordered to cut off [the Hair of] her Separation (Jer. 7. 29.) and to cast it away, she is put in Mind, that her Nazariteship, or State of Separation to God as his peculiar People, was by her Idolatries, rendered vain and ineffectual, and God would have no Regard to it. In this Case the Jews separated themselves backward, or the wrong Way, Isai. 1. 4. They separated themselves from God, Ezek. 14. 5, 7. They sequestered and devoted themselves to the impure, shameful Worship of Baal, Hof.

9. 10. The golden Plate, which was fixed upon the Fore-part of the High-Priest's Mitre, with this Inscription upon it, HOLI-NESS TO THE LORD, was a Token of his eminent Distinction and Separation to God.
Therefore it has the Name of Separation, or Consecration given to it, which we translate Crown, Exod. 29. 6.—39. 30. Lev. 8.
9.—21. 12. And as a Crown or Diadem is the Badge of Separation, or eminent Distinction, from the inferior Part of Mankind, so this Name is also given to the Crowns or Diadems of Kings, 2 Sam. 1. 10. 2 Kings 11. 12. Psal. 89. 39. Under the same Notion, this Word נזר is applied in general to a State of Separation, or Distinction with respect to Honour, Power, &c. Gen. 49. 26. [separate, in Eminence and Diginity, from his Brethren.] Prov.
27. 24. [doth the Crown, a superior State of Honour and Influence, endure to every Generation.] Nah. 3. 17. [Thy crowned, tinction, are as the Locusts.]

Hath two Significations.

I. Consolari se vel alium.

II. Poenitere. Quae duo significata conjuncta sunt.

This Word signifieth a Change of Mind, either with respect to Purposes, Actions or Pursuits, when we dislike them, and turn our Thoughts another Way; this is to repent: or with respect to Sorrow and Grief, when they are abated or totally cease; this is to comfort, or to be comforted. God is said to repent, not because he changes his Purpose or Design, but because he acts in such Manner as Men do when they repent, or alter their Designs. In the very same Manner he is said to be comforted, or eased in his Mind, Isai.
1. 24. —57. 6. These Expressions are to be understood of such Effects or Actions as commonly comfort and give Ease to the Minds of Men.

To fall as an Estate or Inheritance falls to a Man, Judg. 18. 1. Psal. 16. 6. Josh. 23. 4. [I have divided, caused to fall, to you by Lot.] Gen. 25. 18. [and he died, he fell, i. e. his Lot fell, in the Presence of all his Brethren, Gen. 16. 12. See also below under X.] Peculiarly, it signifies, I. To shrink, to wither, as a decayed Limb, Numb. 5. 27. [her Thigh shall rot, fall, wither.] II. The Heart falls, when the Courage fails, 1 Sam. 17. 32. Neb. 6. 16. III. The Countenance falls, when the Marks of Chagrin, Uneasiness, Discontent, Shame, &c. appear upon it, Gen. 4. 5. Job 29. 24. [The light of my Countenance they cast not down; in Opposition to the lifting up of the Face, in Token of Satisfaction and Joy, Job 11. 15.] IV. To be inferior, Job 12. 3. [I—do not fall more than you.] V. To fail, to fall short, to fall to the Ground and be lost, to be of no Effect, Numb. 6. 12. Josh. 21. 45. 1 Sam. 3. 19. 1 Kings 8. 56. 2 Kings 10. 10.

VI. To cease Judg. 2. 19. [they ceased not from, let nothing fall, dropped nothing of, their own Doings.] Isai. 16. 9. [the Shouting for thy Harvest is fallen, ceased.] VII. To light down from a Camel or Chariot, Gen. 24. 64. 2 Kings 5. 21. VIII. To desert to an Enemy, 2 Kings 25. 11. [fugitives that fell away to the King of Babylon.] 1 Chron. 12. 19. [there fell some of Manasseh to David.] Jer. 21. 9. IX. They cast the Lots, made the Lots to fall, 1 Chron. 26. 14. Esth. 3. 7. Isai. 34. 17. X. To lie upon a Bed, Exod. 21. 18. Esth. 7. 8. To lie on the Face, Josh. 7. 10. To lie along, Judg. 7. 13. To lie, to be placed in a Situation, Ver. 12, [the Midianites lay along in the Valley.] Gen. 25. 18. [he died, he was situated, placed, in the Presence of all his Brethren.] XI. To let fall a Supplication, to present it in a humble Manner. Jer. 36. 7. —38. 26. —37. 20. —42. 2. [Let my Supplication be accepted, let it fall humbly, before thee.] XII. To let fall (i. e. to bring forth) a still-born, or abortive Child, which falls upon Earth, and is not taken up, Psal 58. 8. Eccl. 6. 3. Thus Isai. 26. 19 may be understood; the Earth shall cast out the Dead as Abortives. See Root 1807: 64. XIII. The Refuse, the Fallings, the Hinder-Ends of the Wheat, which fall to the Ground through the Sive. Amos 8. 6. XIV. Giants, Men of great Stature, who made others to fall by their Strength and Violence; Fellers. Gen. 6. 4. Numb. 13. 33. XV. Those Parts of an Animal which usually fall or hang down, Job 41. 23. [the Flakes, Fallings, of his Flesh.]

Anima, spiritus. The animal Life, or that Principle by which every Animal, according to it's Kind, lives; (Gen. 1.
20. [every moving Creature that hath, the Soul, of Life.] Ver.
24. [Let the Earth bring forth the living Creature † the Soul of Life.] Ver. 30. [every Beast, —Fowl, &c. wherein there is Life † the Soul of Life.] Lev.
11. 46.) Which animal Life, so far as we know any Thing of the Manner of it's Existence, or so far as the Scripture leads our Thoughts, consists in the Breath, (Job 41. 21. —31. 39. to lose —Life † to breathe out the Soul.) and in the Blood; (Lev.
17. 11, 14. [the Life, † the Soul, of the Flesh is in the Blood.] Jer. 2. 34. [the Blood of the Souls of poor Innocents.] is supported and refreshed by Meat and Drink, (Numb. 11. 6. Psal.
107. 5. Isai. 29. 8. Lam. 1. 11, 19.) and is taken away when the Animal dieth or is slain, Gen.
37. 21. [Let us not kill him † imite him in the Soul.] Deut.
19. 6, 11. Psal. 56. 13. —116.
8. Prov. 1. 19. Jer. 15. 9. Isai.
38. 17. Psal. 49. 15. —94. 17.
Job 33. 30. Hence the following Senses, I. Life, Gen. 9. 5. Exod.

21. 30. 1 Kin. 17. 21. Prov. 12.
10. And in many other Places where it is translated Soul. That which supports Life, Deut. 24.
6. [he taketh a Man's Life, † he taketh a Soul, to Pledge.] To restore, convert, relieve, refresh, the Life or Soul, (Ruth 4. 15. Psal. 19. 7. —23. 3.
Prov. 25. 13. Lam. 1. 16.) is the same Phrase in the Original, and signifies to make the Soul or Life return; to refresh, invigorate, cheer and comfort, the weak, faint or discouraged Mind.
The Waters come in unto my Soul, (Psal. 69. 1. Jon. 2. 5.) the Sword reacheth unto the Soul, (Jer. 4. 10.) i. e. advance so far as to endanger Life. He put his Life in his Hand, (1 Sam.
19. 5.) he hazarded it, put it into a desperate, hopeless Situation, where it might easily have been dash'd out of his Hand.
Put my Life in my Hand, (Job 13. 14.) account it to be in a desperate, hopeless Condition.
II. Animal Appetite, Lust; Desire; Will or Pleasure, Exod.
15. 9. Deut. 23. 24. Psal. 27.
12. Prov. 23. 2. —25. 25. Ecc.
6. 7, 9. Mic. 7. 1. Hab. 2. 5.
III. A Person, Persons, Exod.
1. 5. [All the Souls that came out of the Loins of Jacob were seventy Souls.] Numb. 31. 35.
—35. 30. IV. My Soul, thy Soul, his Soul, &c. are used for the sake of the greater Emphasis, instead of I, thou, he, himself, &c. Gen. 12. 13. Esth. 4.
13. Psal. 131. 2. Job 32. 2.
Lev. 11. 43. In this Manner it is also applied to God, Lev. 26.
11, 30. Judg. 10. 16. —Prov.
6. 16. Isai. 1. 14. —42. 1. Jer.
5. 9, 29. —6. 8. —9. 9. —51.
14. V. As לֵב the Heart [Root 926.] so נפש the Life, Soul is applied to the Faculties, Actions and Affections of the Mind; as, to the Understanding, Memory, Will, Counsel; Defire, Love, Hatred, Courage, Fear, Joy, Sorrow, Anger.
Thus it is also applied to God, Jer. 12. 7. —15. 1. —32. 41.
VI. It is used, in a Singular Manner, to signify (1.) Fish, one Species of the Animal Creation, Isai. 19. 10. [Ponds for Fish. Others render it, Ponds of Desire, or pleasant Ponds.] (2.) A dead animal Body, Lev.
19. 28 Numb. 5. 2. —6. 11. — 9. 6, 7, 10. Hag. 2. 13. In some

some Places the Adjective מת dead, is expressed, as in Numb. 6. 6. —19. 13; and it may, I suppose, in other Places be understood. The Verb derived from this Noun signifies to refresh (N^o. 57, &c.) and so the Noun too may signify Refreshment, in those Places which will admit that Sense; as Isai. 3. 20. [Tablets + Houses of the Soul, i. e. of Refreshment; meaning, probably, some small neat Boxes [Root 181.] inclosing a delicious Perfume. which the Ladies wore about them, to please and recreate themselves with the Smell.]

I. Tumulus : capitaneus, praefectus : statio, statua ; quo modo cum נצב convenit. This Word takes it's Sense from נצב [780.] to be set up firm and fixed for any special Purpose ; Hence, a Statue, Pillar ; the Haft of a Dagger [Signif. II.] A stationary Garrison, a standing Officer.

Hath three Significations.

I. Volare, avolare. This Word signifies I. To fly away ; hence, Feathers, the Instruments of flying. II. To quarrel, to strive, contend, with Blows or Words. III. To be in a waste, desolate Condition, as a City in Ruins. The Difficulty is to reduce these different Senses to one common Notion. Perhaps the Word will admit of the Signification of flying at one in an angry, furious Manner. This will reconcile the I and II Senses.
But I am afraid we shall strain too much if we apply the Notion of flying away to a City demolish'd, and reduc'd to a ruinous Condition.

Ulcisci, vindicare. To revenge, to punish with Severity.
 It is distinguished from punishing a Crime in cool Blood by a judicial Process inflicting a Penalty appointed by Law, as it is supposed to be the Act of a private Person, measuring the Crime and Penalty by his own Sense and Passion. And therefore, though in God it must be always just and equitable, the Infliction of deserved Punishment, yet in Men it is culpable; and forbidden.

HEBREW CONCORDANCE, Adapted to the ENGLISH BIBLE;

Disposed after
The MANNER of BUXTORF.
In Two VOLUMES.

By JOHN TAYLOR, D. D. of NORWICH.

VOL. II.

M.DCC.LVII.

P R E F A C E.

THE Use of this Concordance may very conveniently be connected with Trommius's Greek Concordance of the Septuagint, a very exact and judicious Work. For if the Student chooseth to collate the Hebrew with the Greek, let him look for any Hebrew Word in the Hebrew Index, which Trommius hath added at the End of his Concordance; and he will there find, at once, all the different Greek Words, by which that Hebrew Word is translated in the septuagint Version: and if he turns to the Places in the Greek Concordance, where each Greek Word stands, he will find all the Texts of Scripture, ranged together under that Hebrew Word from which the Greek Word is rendered. And so, by comparing the several Renderings of the Septuagint, he may form a Judgment, upon either the Sense of the Hebrew Word, or upon the Translation of the Septuagint. Thus the Student will gain, more fully and readily than in any other Way, all the Assistance he can receive from the Greek Version: and thus in using my Concordance, the Field of Examination and Evidence will be most commodiously enlarged.

OBSERVE; that the Latin Words at the Beginning of each English Explication of the Roots in this my Concordance, are not mine, but Buxtorf's Translation.

FURTHER take Notice, that the Numbers on each Side at the Head of every Leaf, are not the Numbers of the Pages, but of the Roots; placed there for finding any Root more expeditiously.

Note; If there should be any Errors in the Quotations of Book, Chapter and Verse, besides those I have noted at the End of this Volume, they may easily be corrected by looking for the English Word, to which the Quotation belongs, in a good English Concordance. For Example; Root 190: 3, it stands in this Concordance thus: "And comfort myself, Job 8. 27." But there the Words, "And comfort myself," are not to be found. Therefore, look for the Word "comfort" in the English Concordance, and you will be directed to find them in Job 9. 27. And so in any other Case. Though I believe the Student will seldom have Occasion to make Use of this Expedient.

SOME Gentlemen, worthy of Regard, desired I would join to the Hebrew Words, the same Words in English Characters. But as this would have been a Blemish to the Work, and of little Use to the English Reader, I judg'd it would have a much better Effect to give some easy Rules, as free as possible from technical Terms, for reading Hebrew; that Gentlemen, with little Trouble, might learn to read it themselves. And, for an Exercise in Reading, I have selected some principal Rules of Grammar, with proper Examples under each; and have at large exhibited the Paradigmata of all Sorts of Hebrew Verbs; that by reading them over, the Student might get some Knowledge of the Language, and be encouraged to make further Advances in it. And I can assure him, that, when he has made himself Master of what I have recommended to his Perusal, there will not much remain, but what he will easily surmount.

I HOPE

The P R E F A C E.

I HOPE it will be well remembered, that the Design of this Work is to supply a proper Instrument for explaining Scripture by Scripture ; or for adjusting the Sense of the sacred Language by examining and collating the various Passages, where any Word occurs, in order to gain a clear Idea of it's Signification. This surely is the most authentic Method of interpreting the Bible. And if this were once carefully executed, we should, perhaps, have less Occasion for any foreign Assistance. In some extraordinary Cases indeed the Arabic, and other sister Dialects, may be of service : but at present, I am persuaded, we are not sure how far we want their Help ; and I have met with some Instances, where, I conceive, learned Men might have done better without them. To give one Example. Kimchi saith, the Rabbies would not have known, that יהב (Psal. 55. 22.) signified a Burthen, if some of them had not heard an Arabian Merchant use that Word in ordering a Load to be put on the Back of a Camel. This is brought as an Argument for the great Utility of the Arabic in interpreting the Scripture. But if the Rabbies, and the Commentators that have followed them, had examined the Hebrew Bible in the Manner I propose, they would not, I presume, have given a Sense to this Word, in this single Place, which is quite disagreeable to the Force of it in all the other Places where it is used. Perhaps they would have seen, that the general Notion of יהב is, to supply what is wanting. This Notion, I apprehend, runs naturally through all the Texts where the Word is to be found : [See the Explication of Root 735.] And so in Psal. 55. 22, it will signify, the Supply of thy Wants ; Cast the Supply of thy Wants, or Deficiencies of any Kind, upon the Lord, and he will sustain thee.

THE Arabic, without great Care and Attention, may be mistaken and misapplied ; nor should we call for its Aid, but where it is necessary. Critics may be fond of making Ostentation of Learning ; may espouse a Notion too hastily, and pursue it with too much Eagerness, catching at every Shadow that may seem to favour it, and, breaking through the Rules of common Sense, may force and wrest what will not easily and naturally fall in with it. The more Learning any Man hath, the more need he hath of a correct and cautious Judgment to use it well, otherwise his Learning will only render him the more capable of deceiving himself and others.

THANKS be to GOD, who, beyond Expectation, hath continued Health and Capacity to finish this Work : and Thanks to the GENTLEMEN, who have generously contributed to the Encouragement of it. May it answer the good Ends for which it was designed, and prove an effectual Mean of engaging and assisting in the Study of the sacred Writings ; which are by far the most excellent of all Literature.

Recedere, declinare, divertere. To turn aside out of the Way; I. In the absolute Sense of declining or departing from it, 1 Sam. 6. 12. [the kine took the straight way, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.] 2 Sam. 2. 21. Figuratively, to turn aside out of the Way of Religion or Virtue, 1 Kings 15. 5. [he turned not aside from any thing the Lord commanded him.] 2 Kings 22. 2. Psal. 14. 3. To turn aside from, to eschew Evil, Job 1. 1. Isai. 59. 15. Deut. 17. 11. [thou shalt not decline, turn aside, from the sentence which they shall shew thee.] Hence, to depart, to remove out of an usual Situation, Numb. 12. 10. [the cloud departed from off the tabernacle.] —14. 9. [their defence is departed, removed, from them.] 1 Sam. 15. 32, [bitterness of death is past, removed.] Isai. 6. 7. [thine iniquity is taken away, removed.] 2 Chr. 35. 15. [that they might not depart, remove, from their service.] Hence it is singularly used to denote Degeneracy, or the Removal or Privation of some Quality or Virtue which is proper to the Subject, or which should be in it, Deut. 19. 16. [to testify against him that which is wrong, removed from, destitute of, Truth.] 1 Kings 20. 43. [the king went to his house heavy, sad, removed from, deprived of, his Spirits and Cheerfulness.] So a woman without discretion (Prov. 11. 22.) a degenerate vine (Jer. 2. 21.) sowre drink (Hof. 4. 18.) are to be understood in the same Manner. Revolt, Rebellion, is wilfully turning aside from Duty and Obedience. In Hiphil it signifies to make to depart, to remove, i. e.

to take, or put away, Job 12. 20, 24. —33. 17. II. To turn aside out of the Way in the relative Sense, viz. in order to approach or come unto something that lies out of the Way, Jud. 4. 18. [turn in, my lord, turn into me.] —14. 8. —19. 15. 1 Sam. 22. 14. [and goeth, turneth aside any Way, this or that, at thy bidding.]

II. Navis. Were we better acquainted with the Manner of building Ships in ancient Times, we might give a better Account of the Word below. It seems plain to me that it cannot mean the whole Ship, which in the same Verse is expressed by it's proper Name אניה [Root 83: 10, &c.], but a Part of the Ship, which in all Ships, and in all Ages must be roofed, cieled or covered. I mean the Cabin; to the Sides of which Conveniences, something like Man-

Mangers in Stables, might be fixed, for the Sailors to lie down in.

ספר 1288

Hath four Significations.

I. Numerare, dinum.
enum. As the english Word, tell, so the Hebrew Word ספר signifieth both to relate and to number. I. To number, count, reckon, Lev. 15. 13. A Number, Gen. 34. 30. [and I being few in number † Men of Number, i. e. that may easily be numbered. Note. According to the Genius of the Hebrew Language, when מספר Number, is placed after the Substantive, to which it belongs, it denotes, a few; as Numb. 9. 20. ימים מספר Days of Number, i. e. a few Days, Job 16. 22. שנות מספר Years of Number, or a few Years, Isai. 10. 19. But when it comes before the Substantive to which it is joined, then it denoteth many; as Job 36. 26. מספר שניו the great Number of his Years. Deut. 33. 6. Let not his men be few. Here מתי Men, is evidently understood after מספר, thus; let his men be a number of Men, or many.] II. To tell, to relate, to declare, to shew forth, to exhibit, Psal. 19. 2. To explain, to preach 1 Chron. 16. 24. Psal. 50. 16. [Signif. III.] III. A Relation of Affairs or Transactions, a History, a Commentary, 2 Chron. 24. 27. A Genealogy, a Register, Gen. 5. 1. Neh. 7. 5. A Book, Isai. 29. 11. A Letter, 2 Sam. 11. 14. A Note, a Bill, Deut. 24. 1. A Deed or Conveyance, Jer. 32. 11. A Bill of Indictment, Job 31. 35. IV. A Relater or Declarer of Affairs, a learned Man, a Scholar, a Man of Letters, A Man skilful in reading, explaining or writing Books, a Scribe. 1 Chron. 27. 32. [Signif. Hebraeus * עֵבֶר 123 an Hebrew + a hebrew man Gen. 39. 14. Exod. 2. 11. ¶ an Hebrew Gen. 41. 12. Exod. 21. 2. Jon. 1. 9.

Some think this Name is derived from עֵבֶר Eber, a Patriarch of Distinction, from whom Abraham descended, Gen. 10. 21.—11. 16. Others suppose it was given Abraham by the Canaanites, and so passed to his Posterity, from the Circumstance of his leaving his native Country, and passing over the Euphrates into the Land of Canaan; where he passed from one Place to another, as being a Stranger, Gen. 14. 13. [Abraham the Hebrew, or Passenger.]

Passage. It commonly signifieth that Part of a Country which is the Passage to or from a River. Thus the Passage of Jordan, is the Country which lieth next to Jordan, on either Side the River. We render it on this side Jordan, Deut. 4: 49; or on that side Jordan, Josh. 13: 27; because it is to be understood of the Country on either Side of the River, according to the Situation of the Speaker or the Sense of the Place. Agreeably to this Use of the Word, the Passage of any other Thing, is that which lies over against it, or next to any Side of it, Exod. 28: 26. Hath five Significations.

I. Usque ad: donec: a, ex, &c. This Particle is rightly referred to ער [1324.: 18.] as it signifieth to pass: for it denoteth the Conjunction of a Thing in Motion, with another Thing or Place at a Distance, towards which, it has been moving Gen. 12. 6. [Abraham passed through the land unto the Place of Sichem.] Or it denoteth the passing of Time till it is in Conjunction with some following Point of Time, Lev. 15. 5. [he shall be unclean until the even.] Coccejus. It signifieth the Motion or passing of a Thing till it reacheth a certain Point in Place, or in the Parts of the same Thing; in Time, or in Comparison with a Thing to which another either is or is not equal, 2 Sam. 23. 19. [he attained not unto the first three mighty Men.] It is sometimes rightly rendered, while, as yet; but the preceding Motion of Time or Action is supposed, Job 1. 18. [while he was yet speaking, i. e. unto his speaking, or when he had got so far in speaking.] Hag. 2. 19. [as yet the vine—bath not brought forth, i. e. unto this Point, or so far it hath advanced, but no further.] Thus this Particle is to be understood when some Point or Period of Motion is mentioned. But, when no Period of Motion is mentioned, then it signifieth moving still on indefinitely, without End, or without a known End: and may denote either some long future Space of Time, or Perpetuity, Eternity, an endless Duration. This Word, I conceive, naturally importeth to draw together the adjacent Earth into an orderly Heap, about the Roots of Vines with a Hoe or Spade. [Signif. III.] See Virgil. Georg. II. 1. 354. Seminibus positis, superest deducere terram Saepius ad capita, et duos jactare bidentes. And as this must occasion a Deficiency of Earth in those Parts whence the Hoe digged or raked the Earth that was laid together about the Vines; hence, in Niphil, to be boed is to be deficient, to be raked away, to fail, to be wanting in it's proper Place [Signif. I.] And as the Earth by hoeing was drawn together into orderly, regular Collections about the Roots of the Vines, hence, it may be applied to orderly Collections of Cattle, or of Men in Battle-array. See Virg. Georg. II. 1. 277, &c. However, it is certainly applied to Flocks or Herds of Cattle, and to the keeping of Rank in an Army [Signif. II.] Cotes for Flocks (2 Chron. 32. 28.) is obscurely expressed in the Hebrew, where it is Flocks for Cotes. But the Historian, I apprehend, meant, that Solomon had some convenient Folds or Inclosures for Flocks or Herds.

II. Atrium, area. The Court, mentioned 2 Chr. Chap. fourth and sixth, seemeth to have been a square Work raised above the Pavement, with a Parapet round about it, and a Door in the Parapet, before the Altar of Burnt-offerings. Upon this elevated Square stood Solomon's Pulpit, 2 Chron. 6. 12, 13. But in Ezekiel, where we translate it the Settle, it is, I apprehend, the Benching in round about the Sides of the Altar of Burnt-offerings,

offerings, both the higher and lower Benching in, upon which the Priests walked, when officiating about the Sacrifices. And both these, the elevated Square, and the Benchings in, might take their Names from this Root, as they gave Help, or Advantage, to those that stood upon them.

Compes: Tinnitus. To make a tripping Motion with the Feet, Isai. 3. 16. Prov. 7.
22. [or as a fool to the correction of the stocks. † or as the stocks go to the correction of a fool. A strange Disorder of Words. Interpreters are very much puzzled to make out the Sense of this Place. Which I think is best done, by supposing, that the Word we render Stocks, is a Verb בְּעָכָם, the Infinitive of Pibel, signifying, I suppose, to move with a nimble tripping Pace: and that אָוִיל, a Fool, is put for אֵיל, a Hart, a Deer, [Root 55: 39.] This certainly giveth the most just and proper Sense of both Verses, thus; He goeth after her—, as an ox goeth to the slaughter; or as the hart trippeth into the toils, [Root 766: 35, &c.] till a dart [the Huntsman's Dart] striketh through his liver; as a bird hastneth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

But the Dissertation of the learned Dr. Hunt, Hebrew and Arabic Professor at Oxford, upon those Verses, will give more Satisfaction.] Certain Trinkets, which the Hebrew Ladies wore about their Feet, either to make, or discover, a pretty tripping Motion in their Gate, Isai. 3. 18.

Hirudo, sanguisuga. The Horseleach. Schultens, judging the Simile of the Horseleach too soft to represent the very great Evils of her four Daughters, the Grave, the barren Womb, the thirsty Earth, and the Fire, renders this Word by the most monstrous of Evils. But the four foreaid Daughters are not considered by the sacred Writer as monstrous Evils, but only as insatiable. Therefore, even in his, Schultens, Judgment, there is nothing left in Arabic, from which alone we must here take our Ideas, but the Horseleach; which sufficiently answers the Purpose. See a like Comparison between the Grave and Destruction and the Eyes of Man, Prov. 27. 20.

ענה 1387

Hath five Significations.

I. Hinc est למען de quo vide מען [1052.]

II. Respondere, exaudire: clamare, loqui: testificari, &c. It is not unnatural to suppose, that many Images and Ideas in the primitive Language were taken from rural Affairs, in which the first Mortals were most conversant. The primary Sense of this Word may be a Furrow: and the secondary Senses may be taken from the correspondence of the Furrow to the Ridge, or to the adjacent Furrows, in Length, Distance and Depth: or from the alternate, corresponding Motion of the Plough up one Furrow and down another. This, allowing that the Sense of Words, by Custom and Use, do often extend beyond the primary Idea, may serve to explain the Senses of this Root. For, from hence will arise the Ideas of suiting, answering, or corresponding to, of being in the Furrow, or in a low depressed Condition, and of Travel or Toil. I. A Furrow, [Signif. V.] Hof. 10. 10. [when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows + when they [their Enemies] shall gear them [bind them with Plough-gears] in their two Furrows; and oblige them by the Terror of the Goad to labour alternately in the Field up one Furrow and down another. 'Tis a figurative Way of expressing wretched Servitude in a State of Captivity.] 1 Sam. 14. 14. [an half acre + half a furrow. Psal. 129. 3. [long furrows rows may signify long Wheals or Slashes made by Scourging; or the long Continuance of injurious Usage.] II. To answer, to suit, to correspond to, as one Furrow suiteth or correspondeth to another, [Signif. II.] 1 Kin. 12. 7. [and wilt serve them, and answer them, suit them, accommodate thyself unto them.] Prov. 16. 4. [all things for himself + every thing for that which suiteth it] Eccles. 10. 19. [money answereth all things, suiteth all Cases as a Supply.] Hence, (1.) to act suitably, or in Correspondence to a Person's Desires or Distresses; to deliver, relieve, supply, &c. as the Sense of the Place requireth, Gen. 35. 3. [who answered, relieved, encouraged, me in the day of my distress.] Psal. 22. 21. [thou hast heard + answered, i. e. delivered me from the horns of the unicorns.] Psal. 65. 5. [By terrible things in righteousness, in Favour and Goodness, thou wilt answer, succour deliver us.] Eccles. 5. 20. [answereth him, comforteth him by giving him Joy of Heart.] Isai. 41. 17. [When the poor seek water — and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will bear + answer, supply them.] Isai. 49. 8. [In an acceptable time have I heard + answered, relieved, thee.] Hof. 2. 21, 22. [I will bear + answer, supply, the heavens, clouds, and they shall supply the earth, &c.] Zech. 10. 6. And thus, I suppose, all the Places, where Men are said to call, and God to answer, are to be understood. (2.) To act suitably or in Correspondence to Exhortations, Admonitions or Instructions, Isai. 65. 12. [I have called unto them, but they have not answered, acted suitably to my Calls, Exhortations, Admonitions.] Jer. 35. 17. And in several other Places. Mal. 2. 12. [and the scholar + him that answereth, i. e. obeyeth Excitations to Virtue, or Knowledge.] III. To utter a Sound corresponding to an inward Passion, or to some present Occasion. [Signif. II.] (1.) To shout for Victory, to cry for being overcome, Exod. 32. 18. Jer. 25. 30. [He shall give a shout as they that tread the grapes. God's executing dreadful Judgments upon his Enemies is compar'd to treading Grapes in the

Wine press, Isai. 63. 2, 3. And here he is said to shout, as was usual with the Treaders of Grapes, by way of Encouragement.] (2.) To speak suitably, or in Correspondence to a Case, Occasion or Affair in Hand, or in Thought, Deut. 21. 7. — 26. 5. And thou shalt answer, shalt speak suitably to the Occasion, and say, — a Syrian ready to perish, &c.] — 27. 15. Job 3. 2. [And Job answered, spake agreeably to his heavy Affliction, and said.] Cant. 2. 10. [my beloved answered, spake agreeably to the Love betwixt us, or to my Wishes, and said, rise up my love, &c.] (3.) To utter the Voice alternately, or in Correspondence to the Voice of another, Isai. 13. 22. [the wild beasts of the Islands shall cry, or howl responsively; speaking of the Yakales, which howl in answer to one another. See Root 51: 24.] To sing alternately, or in Courses. Ezra 3. 11. Exod. 32. 18. 1 Sam. 12. 11. — 29. 5. Isai. 27. 2. (4.) To speak in Correspondence to what is spoken, asked, requested or consulted by another; to answer, Judg. 8. 8. 2 Sam. 21. 1. Mic. 3. 7. — 6. 5. (5.) To answer by a Fact or Event, 1 Kings 18. 24. 1 Chron. 21. 26, 28. (6.) To answer in litigious or judicial Cases. To plead, argue, dispute in a Cause, either as Plaintiff or Defendant, Exod. 23. 2. [neither shalt thou speak, argue, plead, in a Cause.] Job 9. 14, 32. [that I should answer, contend, argue, contest with, him.] — 32. 17, 20. [I will answer, argue, dispute, my part.] To answer one that calleth another to Account for his Conduct; to give an Account of one's Actions. Job 33. 13. [he giveth not account of any of, + of all, his matters.] To answer or vindicate, Job 5. 1. — 9. 15. [would I not answer, vindicate myself.] — 15. 2. [should a wise man utter, answer, vindicate himself with, vain knowledge.] — 40. 2. [let him answer, vindicate, it.] To answer, to confute, Job 9. 3. [he cannot answer him, confute him, prove him to be unjust or mistaken, in one of a thousand.] — 11. 2. — 32. 12. To answer as a Witness, to evidence, Gen. 30. 33. [my righteousness, my Right in the speckled Cattle, shall answer, evidence, for me, justify me.] Exod. 20. 16. Deut. 31. 21. 1 Sam. 12. 3. Prov. 25. 18. Mic. 6. 3. Hence, to testify against, to convict, to condemn, Ruth 1. 21. 2 Sam. 1. 16. Isai. 3. 9. — 59. 12. Hof. 5. 5. IV. To be in the Furrow, or in a depressed State. [Signif. III.] (1.) With respect to the outward Condition. To be in low, weak, poor, degraded, contemptible Circumstances; frequently. To use hardly, to mortify, to render mean and vile, Gen. 16. 6. — 34. 2. Deut. 21. 14 — 22. 24, 29. Judg. 16. 5. 2 Sam. 13. 12, 14. Psal. 105. 18. Lam. 5. 11. (2.) To be sunk or depressed in Spirit, in opposition to being proud, insolent, severe or rigid, Exod. 10. 3. Ezra 9. 5. Psal. 35. 15. Isai. 31. 4. — 58. 3. To be humble, meek, gentle, Numb. 12. 3. 2 Sam. 22. 36. Eccles. 1. 13. [to be exercised, humbled, made modest, therewith.] — 3. 10. V. Toiling, troubling Business, like that of Oxen, dragging the Plough in the Furrow: Events which occasion much Trouble and Fatigue. [Signif. IV.]
